

Fair Facts

The Chelan County Fair is the 18th Largest Fair in the State of Washington.

Right here in Cashmere that's #18 out of 49 Fairs statewide.

Dollars and Cents of the Chelan County Fair to
Keep the Cash in Cashmere
Attendance Annually

766 Vendor workers

26,000 Gate Attendees

1250 Exhibitors, including Cashmere FFA & 4-H students

548 Volunteers

All of these individuals spend $$$ in Cashmere

The Chelan County Fair provides a venue for multiple non-profit organizations to raise funds

(Cashmere's American Legion, Kiwanis, Rotary, Christ Church)

Budget Information

2009

$248,600

Receivables $183,874

(these dollars are recycled in Chelan County a minimum of 3 times)

Expenditures $189,601***

Carnival profits $19,166

Carnival employee expenditures with local businesses $20,000 +***

(Davis Shows ownership reports their employees spend their wages on cigarettes and food at the mini mart, laundromat and on personal needs within walking distance of the Fair.) Steve Dilly, owner of the Cashmere Mini Mart has said many times the four days of the Fair are the busiest days of the year for the mini mart.

Secondary economic impact to Cashmere during 4 day Event $36,428***

(this number is computed by a formula used by the US Chambers of Commerce)

Premiums paid to Exhibitors in 2009 $15,102***

(these dollars are also recycled a minimum of 3 times)

Livestock Auction Paid $88,260***

KEEP THE CASH IN CASHMERE. . . .

The Chelan County Fair has an economic impact in Dollars to Cashmere and the surrounding area of $379,595* minimum annually

THE FAIR SUPPORTS YOUR BUSINESS.

PLEASE SHOW YOUR SUPPORT FOR THE FAIR!

Volunteers needed. Ask today where you can help. . . .782-3232