Electronics Recycling Options in Chelan County

Free Electronics Recycling Program

The E-Cycle program, which initiated January 1, 2009, allows for free electronics recycling for small businesses, households, schools, small governments, special purpose districts, and nonprofit organizations with ten or fewer electronic items. This program will accept computers, monitors, laptop computers, e-readers, portable DVD players, and TVs for recycling. For more information see: E-Cycle Washington

The following items are NOT accepted in the E-Cycle program: keyboards, mice and printers, cell phones, fax machines, standard DVD players, and iPods.

Locations in Chelan County include:

- Salvation Army Store of Wenatchee

1501A North Miller St.-behind Denny's Restaurant

Wenatchee, WA 662-5103

Open 9:00am to 3:00pm; Monday through Saturday

- City of Chelan Recycle Center

23233 Highway 97A

Chelan, WA 682-4037

Staples Office Supply and Office Depot in Wenatchee charge a fee for recycling computers, and do accept keyboards, printers, and fax machines. Print cartridges can be redeemed at Staples and Office Depot for a $2 merchandise credit on Club/Rewards cards.
