Questions Submitted to Chelan County:

1. Why did the previous Cashmere subagency close, and when did it stop operating?

Answer: It did not close; the current appointee is retiring.

2. Could you provide annual transaction counts for the last three years, broken down by title transactions vs. registration renewals?

	2026 so far
total transactions	26,655
title transactions	6,712
registration renewals	17,809
	2025
total transactions	29,816
title transactions	8,211
registration renewals	19,239
	2024
total transactions	30,839
title transactions	8,383
registration renewals	18,960

*The transaction counts above include all transaction types, including: No Fee transactions, Non-Fee Based transactions, Reversed transactions, and Standard fee transactions

3. Could you share the service-area boundary map referenced in the RFP?

Answer: The map for the physical location is located on page 5 of the RFP. There is no service-area boundary.

4. Is the previous subagency location available for lease, and do any fixtures or workstations remain on site?

Answer: The property is privately owned. You would need to contact the property owners to determine that. As outlined in the RFP, some equipment is provided to you by DOL.

5. Would a proposal in which the owner is not on site daily, with a full-time, licensing-experienced manager running operations, be considered competitive?

Answer: There is no requirement that the appointee be on site daily.

6. Does the approximately $345,000 annual gross revenue figure refer only to subagent service fee revenue?

Answer: That gross revenue estimate is only for the work being done as a sub-agent.
