

Chelan Goats 2023 WIAA 1A State Volleyball Champions

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Manson Trojans Volleyball Team won its first state championship – the only state championship of any sport in Manson High School history – when it earned the title of 2023 2B State Volleyball Champions on Nov. 9, 2023; and

WHEREAS, the Chelan Goats Volleyball Team, for the fourth consecutive year, was named the best in the state in its division, earning most recently the title of 2023 1A State Volleyball Champions on Nov. 11, 2023; and

WHEREAS, the Wenatchee Panthers Volleyball Team fought its way to a 2023 4A State Volleyball Championship Title on Nov. 18, 2023, bringing home to Wenatchee High School its first state volleyball championship title in 40 years; and

WHEREAS, at no time in Chelan County’s known history have three separate high schools been named state champions in one sport, making Chelan County in 2023 the epicenter of state volleyball champions, winning three out of the six division titles recognized by the Washington Interscholastic Activities Association; and

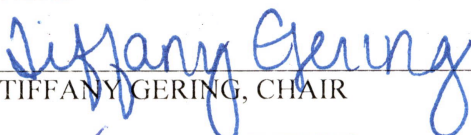

WHEREAS, these female athletes, through their hard work, perseverance and dedication to their teams, schools and community, inspire other young girls across Chelan County to participate in and excel at sports, and serve as role models now and in the future; and

WHEREAS, the three teams are all under the leadership of elite Coaches Jordan McGregor-Hansen of the Wenatchee Panthers, Abby Lewellen of the Chelan Goats and Hayli Thompson of the Manson Trojans, who are champions themselves for their programs, their players and female sports; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Chelan County Commissioners do hereby proclaim that Friday, December 15, 2023, shall be recognized as “Volleyball State Champions Day.” This day is set aside to celebrate the Manson, Chelan and Wenatchee volleyball programs and the young women who have brought much honor and pride to Chelan County.

Dated this 12th day of December 2023.
