

Public Input & Listening Sessions

Americans with Disabilities: Self-Evaluation & Transition Plan

When: Thursday, May 11 | 11:30 am to 1:00 pm or 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Where: Chelan County Administration Building, 400 Douglas Street, Meeting Room #1

Purpose: Chelan County is updating its Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan to fulfill requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Plan includes evaluating all public facilities managed by Chelan County, including the Courthouse Campus buildings, County Parks like Monitor Park and Ohme Gardens, and the Expo Center.

We need your input as someone with a disability or the caregiver of someone with a disability who accesses the County's facilities or utilizes the County's programs and services. Your input will help determine the County's priorities for continuing to upgrade facilities and programs to make them accessible to everyone. The Listening Sessions are a drop-in format, so you can arrive within any of the allotted times.

If you need assistance accessing the listening sessions, require auxiliary aids, or would like to schedule a digital meeting via Zoom in lieu of attending in person, please contact Jill FitzSimmons at 509-667-6545 or jillm.fitzsimmons@co.chelan.wa.us.
