July 14, 2026

Dear Applicant:

Congratulations on taking the first step towards your goal of becoming the 2027 Chelan County Fair & Rodeo Queen.

This Pageant will be held annually to showcase and honor young ladies who have the maturity, talent, desire, and enthusiasm to compete for the Chelan County Fair & Rodeo Queen title. While there are several categories in which we will present awards to individual winners (horsemanship, speech, and photogenic), there will be only one titleholder crowned at the conclusion of the competition.

The 2027 Queen will be presented with awards, sponsored items, and royalty accessories to be worn during the year of her reign. She will experience a memory-filled year of community events, public speaking, parades, luncheons, and rodeos, all while serving as a goodwill ambassador for the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo.

The following application packet is arranged in sections for ease in reviewing:

- Contestant Information (Eligibility, Rules, Expectations)
- Pageant Categories
- Pageant Wardrobe Requirements
- Application (due 08/28/26 by 3:00pm) 12
- 2026/2027 Queen Contract 17
- Waiver of Liability 19
- Funds Form 22

On behalf of the Fair Board and Rodeo Committee, I welcome your participation in the 2027 Pageant.

Do not hesitate to contact me at the phone number or email listed above if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Kate Redell
Royalty Director
Chelan County Fair Board

CONTESTANT ELIGIBILITY

1. Contestants must not be younger than 17 years of age as of the date of application (August 28, 2026) nor turn 23 during the year of reign (September 2026–September 2027). A birth certificate may be requested to verify eligible age.
 2. Contestants must be a legal resident of Chelan, Douglas, Grant, or Okanogan County. Contestants must live with her parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) throughout her reign. Contestants are eligible to compete if enrolled at an educational institution inside a 65-mile radius of the before listed counties; however, must be a legal resident as stated above. This is a local competition, and the duties are a year-round obligation, which are best suited for a young woman who lives and studies locally.
 3. Contestants must be attending or have completed high school.
 4. Contestants must have reliable transportation for herself and her horse.
 5. Contestants must never have been: disqualified from the Chelan County Fair; any pageant, nor resigned or have had their title removed from/by another royalty program; nor previously held the title of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen.
 6. Contestants must be single, never have been married, pregnant, or given birth to a child and must agree to remain so for the duration of her reign.
 7. Contestants must not have engaged in any act, which if made public, would be reasonably likely to cause harm or damage to the contestant's reputation or to the goodwill and reputation of the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo or Royalty Program. Any concerns about the applicability of this provision should be discussed with the Royalty Director prior to signing the application.
 8. A contestant must have never posed nude or semi-nude in any pictures, files, publications, movies, or other electronic/social media.
 9. Contestants shall never have committed a crime or been convicted of a felony crime (or equivalent, while a juvenile). Contestants shall not have pending criminal charges or have adjudicated criminal sentences pending against her.
 10. Contestants must be honest and reliable with good moral standards and integrity.
- If the contestant who earns the title of Queen violates any of the eligibility rules during her reign, she will relinquish all rights and privileges of her title, including clothing, tack and accessories provided by Committee and sponsors, at the request of the Committee.

CHELAN COUNTY FAIR RODEO QUEEN PAGEANT

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Acceptance of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen title presupposes her voluntary relinquishment of a certain amount of freedom in personal choices and activities while competing for or holding this position of responsibility.

Contestants must conduct themselves in a proper lady-like manner and portray high moral standards. While identifiable as Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen or pageant contestant, contestants/titleholder will not be permitted to drink alcoholic beverages, use illegal substances or paraphernalia, use tobacco or marijuana products, or use inappropriate language or profanity. She shall not become publicly intoxicated or associate with any person(s) in a manner that brings disrespect on her title, the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo, or the Royalty Program. She shall not participate in public displays of affection. She shall not travel with a significant other to royalty or pageant events. She shall not attend or frequent places of questionable reputation. She shall not participate in inappropriate internet or social networking behavior at any time during the pageant or while representing the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo.

The horse the contestant tries out on must be the same horse she rides throughout the year of her reign (unless unforeseen circumstances dictate otherwise). No stud horses will be allowed to be used as a royalty horse. Horse must be used primarily for Queen's year of reign for royalty activities; the schedule does not allow for multiple uses and/or riders throughout the year. If contestant is using a leased horse, a signed lease agreement must accompany this application. Lease must specify lessee has "full access" to horse throughout year of reign.

Contestant must provide her own clothing for the competition. Contestants will agree to follow the wardrobe requirements. (Please see "Pageant Wardrobe" requirements.)

Contestants must be prompt and on time to all functions. Please plan ahead.

Contestants will not display body piercings on any visible part of her body, tongue, nose, eyebrow, etc., excluding earrings that are part of the official Royalty attire. Tattoos must be covered by appropriate clothing, or makeup.

From the time the pageant starts until after the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen has been crowned, contestants must respect the Royalty Committee, judges, volunteers, and fellow contestants, and conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. Any contestant failing to do so, will be automatically disqualified and will forfeit any prizes to be awarded to her.

Contestant will supply the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Committee with one 8x10 color photo. Photo must be head and shoulder pose in full western attire including western cowboy hat. Photo should not have crown or banner from any other title or competition. The photo will be used for photogenic judging and publicity. IMPORTANT: No copyright labels on photos. If photo is copyrighted, get written permission from your photographer for the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Royalty Committee to use your photo for publicity. Photo, with written permission of use (if applicable), must be included with your application.

All contestants must complete the application process by returning the completed application packet, with photo, no later than 3:00pm on Friday, August 28, 2026, to the Chelan County Fair office, located at 5700 Westcott Drive, Cashmere, WA 98815.

Judges and Royalty Committee have the final say on all scoring decisions. During the pageant or any pageant-related functions, there may be a silent judge(s) present. Any contestant or individual with the intent to influence or harass a judge may be subject to disqualification.

Contestants must also understand that in the event of winning the title, the Queen will work closely with the Royalty Director and/or Committee on all projects.

The Queen and her parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) will be required, immediately following the pageant, to sign a contract for her year of reign and abide by its rules. A copy of the contract is included in this packet for your review.

Royalty Committee and Queen will select appropriate clothing, hat(s), boots, belt(s), belt buckle, coat, chaps, name badge, sash, and accessories to be worn for the year of reign. Queen will also receive parade flower basket, and assortment of horse tack, as budget allows. Selected items will be paid for through the Royalty budget. Royalty Committee has final authority over attire and all expenses.

The following property will be made available to titleholder. Titleholder will be responsible for maintenance, damage, loss, or theft of such property while in her possession. Such property shall be returned to the Royalty Director in good condition at or before the 2026-2027 Pageant or immediately upon dismissal:

Crowns

Flower basket

Chaps

If Queen fails to fulfill her year of reign, all items purchased for, or provided to, titleholder will be returned to the Royalty Committee.

The Queen must attend selected rodeos and appear in parades and other civic and social activities. The Royalty Committee will prepare an itinerary. Great care will be taken in providing as much advance notice as possible for all events; however, please keep in mind that some invitations are received by the Committee with short notice. The Queen is never to attend an event representing the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo without prior Royalty Committee authorization, and an appropriate chaperone in attendance.

CHELAN COUNTY FAIR RODEO QUEEN PAGEANT

EXPECTATIONS

I understand that if I earn the title of Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen, I will be an official representative and be responsible to represent the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo in a professional manner. I will strive to represent sportsmanship, high moral and ethical character and humane treatment of animals.

I understand that the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen Program is not a beauty contest. Rather, it is a competition that recognizes a number of attributes (i.e., horsemanship, public speaking, personality, and appearance). Therefore, it is my responsibility, as a Chelan County Fair and Rodeo official representative to act, speak and dress according to the esteem my title deserves any time I am in the public eye.

Public speaking is an essential part of the position and, as such, I will continue to grow in my public speaking abilities to professionally represent the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo.

Riding and horsemanship skills are essential to the promotion of the sport of rodeo. Therefore, I will strive to improve my riding and horsemanship skills in order to better promote the sport of rodeo.

I understand that during official Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen activities, an official chaperone will be designated for me and that I will abide by that chaperone.

I understand and agree that my official appearances must be approved by the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Committee and agree to maintain close contact with the Committee to accomplish this.

I agree that during the term from my entry as a contestant and through my reign as Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen, I shall remain unmarried and shall observe a high standard of moral and ethical behavior befitting my title and set a good example to the public, to future competitors, and the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Program.

I agree to live with my parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) throughout the year of my reign (see "Contestant Eligibility" No. 2). I will not cohabitate with a significant other (male/female) and will not be involved in a domestic partnership or similar intimate living relationship.

No significant other (male/female), who I am in a relationship with, shall attend events that I am attending as Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen. As Queen, I will not travel to any appearances with him/her regardless of the situation.

If I possess a personal website or social media profile (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, etc.), I agree that all material contained therein will be maintained to reflect a positive image of me, and my position as Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen. I will also accept committee members friend/follow requests, so that they may monitor my activity throughout my reign to ensure the title of Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen is upheld with respect and dignity.

I agree that the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen title commitment will be my first priority over any other activities I may be involved in (i.e., rodeo, WAHSET, barrel racing, softball, track, etc.) throughout the year of my reign.

If I become the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen, I will:

- Attend specific events as requested by the Royalty Committee (with a Royalty Committee-approved chaperone) and be prepared to promote the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo.
- Be fully dressed in Royalty attire, as assigned, before arrival to an event (unless other arrangements have been made by the chaperone) any time I am acting in the capacity of Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen.
- Make sure clothing is kept clean and pressed (using only dry-cleaning services unless otherwise designated) and hat is appropriately shaped and clean, for all appearances.
- Never wear hair “wash and wear” style or be seen in curlers/rollers.
- Keep fingernails clean and manicured with French tip and/or clear polish.
- Be careful when choosing attire when not in uniform, remembering I constantly represent the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo.
- Understand that chewing gum is not allowed while in public places or riding in parades and rodeos.
- Keep family/personal matters private and not on display.
- Avoid cell phone use during any event that I am a guest of while representing the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo. Phones are not allowed to be carried in jean/pants pockets at an event.
- Maintain a positive social media presence, through the Chelan County Fair, Facebook and Instagram accounts. Used to promote activities, luncheons, parades, and rodeos I attend throughout my reign. I will send photos and written description to the Chelan County social media manager to which she will post to the fair’s accounts.
- Not be accompanied by a significant other when making appearances or while wearing crown and banner/badge.
- Not engage in gossip or lying, make defamatory or slanderous comments concerning others, exhibit racial insensitivity, use inappropriate language, or participate in other conduct unbecoming of the title of Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen.
- Maintain a positive attitude.
- Agree to execute a separate agreement with the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo with respect to my duties as Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen.
- Uphold the title of Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen while fulfilling the provisions of my reign.
- Encourage others to participate in future pageants, act as a hostess to contestants in future pageants, and assist in the promotion and conduct of the pageant in every way.

I have carefully read the aforementioned statements and accompanying Waiver of Liability and fully understand and agree to abide by the terms therein. I also agree that I have read and understand the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen Pageant rules and agree to abide by these rules during official Chelan County Fair Rodeo Pageant events.

PAGEANT CATEGORIES

There will be three or more judges. Each contestant will be judged in: personal interview, horsemanship, modeling, speech presentation, and impromptu questions. There may be other activities deemed appropriate by the Royalty Committee or judges.

MEET & GREET:

The contestants, judges, and Royalty Committee will have an informal meet and greet at the Chelan County Fairgrounds entrance off Kimber Road on Saturday, September 12, 2026, from 11:00 to 11:30 AM. Snacks will be served. Start time may vary depending on the number of contestants.

PERSONAL INTERVIEW:

Personal interviews will begin at 12:00 PM sharp at the Dinner Bell. Contestants will participate individually in a 15-minute interview, followed by a 10-minute interview with their parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s).

The purpose of this category is to select the young woman who scores the highest in:

- Application: Information, appearance and grammatically correct.
- Intelligence and knowledge of: The Chelan County Fair and Rodeo current local and world events; and the sport of rodeo.
- Conversational abilities: The ability to answer questions in a confident and thorough manner and proper use of the English language.
- Showmanship: The ability to present herself in a gracious manner; reflect self-confidence, sense of humor, ambition, and enthusiasm; and demonstrate the ability to promote the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo in public events as appropriate.
- Parent(s)/legal guardian(s) support: Parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) should be prepared for an interview with the judges.

HORSEMANSHIP:

The Horsemanship competition will take place on Saturday, September 12, 2026, at approximately 1:30 PM in the rodeo arena at the Chelan County Fairgrounds. The official competition pattern will be provided by email.

The purpose of this category is to select the young woman who scores the highest in:

- Horsemanship: Includes four-part competition: rail work, pattern, flag run and presentation run. Judges will be looking for:
 - Equitation: balance, ability, and position of hands, feet and seat when riding at a reasonable rate of speed for the activity.
 - Pattern: understanding of leads and proper execution of a specific pattern.
 - Showmanship: posture, poise, style and flair (how well a contestant projects her personality to the audience from horseback).
 - Tack need not be expensive or flashy, but must be clean, safe, and properly cared for.
 - Contestants will not be judged and marked down on quality of tack.
- Horsemanship Interview: Knowledge of tack, horse science (including feeding, grooming, parts of the horse, health care, etc.), rodeo terminology, explanation of rodeo events, championship rodeo standings and current issues of the PRCA and Columbia River Circuit. Judges may ask horsemanship questions in the arena, during an interview and as one, or more, of the impromptu questions.

MODELING/PHOTOGENIC:

The Modeling portion of the competition will take place at the Dinner Bell an hour after the completion of the Horsemanship competition.

The purpose of this category is to select the young woman who scores the highest in:

- General: Judges will be looking for personality, individuality, creativity and how the contestant presents a complete image and appearance.
- Grooming: Appearance must be neat; cleanliness is expected in every detail (hands, hair, nails, fragrance, and clothing).
- Fashion Sense: Outfits should be fashionable and tasteful clothing. Outfits should be proper for the occasion, coordinated and enhance the natural coloring and figure of the contestant.
- Posture and Poise: Judges will observe a contestant's posture, how she walks, models her outfit, the style she projects and her overall appearance and behavior.
- Photogenic: Judging is based solely on the picture submitted.

SPEECH:

Contestants will present their speech on Saturday, September 12, 2026, following the modeling competition at the Dinner Bell. The official speech topic is: "What does the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo mean to you?"

The purpose of this category is to select the young woman who scores the highest in:

- Speech/Presentation: Contestant will deliver a 2 to 3-minute speech/presentation in which the content is well developed, interesting, understandable and which most fits the speech topic.
- Communication: The ability to communicate with an audience using appropriate and correct sentence structure, vocabulary, grammar, and projection, including delivery, voice, manner, and use of a microphone.
- Personality: Let your personality, imagination and creativity be your guide when preparing and presenting your speech.

NOTE:

- Notes, note cards and/or props are not permitted.
 - Four copies of the contestant's speech must be submitted to the judges during the personal interview. Judges will compare written speech to presented speech for overall speech scoring.
- Impromptu Questions: Same questions to be asked of each contestant. Judges will score on contestant's ability to clearly state their opinion, delivery, and timeliness of responses. Questions will be presented at conclusion of contestant's speech presentation.

GENERAL:

Judges will also look for contestants who:

- Can conduct themselves in situations that require maturity, diplomacy, and leadership (ability to adapt to most situations).
- Are able to maintain conversational ability in varied areas with an emphasis on grammar, enunciation and speaking etiquette.
- Show intelligence and common sense.
- Have a happy outlook on life, general sense of humor.
- Demonstrate promptness in keeping pageant schedules.
- Possess the ability to:
 - Relate to people of all ages and abilities.
 - Show genuine interest in other people and noticeable courtesy in all situations.
 - Present herself to people in a positive manner.
 - Project her personality to people she may meet in a short time span, in formal situations, in a riding arena, and/or before an audience in other activities.

SCORING/JUDGING:

- Qualified judges will be selected and will judge all parts of the contest.
- Contestants must meet a minimum-scoring standard of 70% (of the total overall score) to be considered for the position of Chelan County Fair and Rodeo Queen.
- Contestants should realize they could be judged at any time during the Pageant, whether formally or informally.
- A head judge will be chosen amongst the judges. The head judge will place completed score sheets from all of the judges in a sealed envelope and sign the seal. The sealed envelope will be delivered to the auditor. The scores will then be tallied and presented to the emcee for announcing category winners and titleholder, at conclusion of the competition.
- Contestants will vote on the selection of Miss Congeniality. Royalty Committee members and judges will select the winner of the “Spirit” award. There are no points given for these awards.
- Ties for category winners (Horsemanship, Speech, Photogenic) will be broken by adding in the silent judge’s scores. A tie for Miss Congeniality will be broken by a second balloting by contestants.
- The contestant receiving the highest grand total score for all categories shall be crowned Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen 2027 on Sunday, September 13, 2026, during the rodeo. The contestant receiving the second highest score shall be first runner-up. In the case of a tie, the silent judge’s scores will be added to the scoring for the two (or more) contestants who are tied.
- Judges’ comments, if any, will be available to each contestant not less than 15 days or no more than 60 days after the pageant, upon written request of contestant.

CHELAN COUNTY FAIR RODEO QUEEN PAGEANT APPLICATION

By my signature on this application, I certify that I have read the regulations established by the Royalty Committee.

I hereby grant permission to the Royalty Committee to verify any information on my application and attest that the information I have provided is true.

I hereby release the Royalty Committee from responsibility of injury or loss to person or property involving myself related to my appearance in the pageant; this also applies to persons related to me.

I hereby certify that I have never been married, pregnant, or given birth to a child.

I hereby certify that I am a resident of Chelan, Douglas, Grant or Okanogan County or attend school within a 65-mile radius but must still be legal resident of one of these counties.

I hereby certify that I do not have a criminal record.

I hereby release title, claim, and rights to photographs, and/or public relations materials involving myself to the Royalty Committee for use in Pageant promotion.

In the event I receive the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen title, I will complete the tenure of my title in accordance with aforesaid regulations and in the best interest of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Program and I will relinquish all claims and accouterments relating to the title upon the naming of my successor.

I agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo, Chelan County Fair Board, Rodeo Royalty Committee, and all rodeo committees, their officers, agents, or employees from and against all loss or expense by reason of liability imposed by law for damages due to bodily injuries, including death at any time, and damages to property, including loss of use thereof, arising out of or related to any negligence.

I hereby affix my signature attesting my agreement to the above without reserve.

The below contract will be signed at the conclusion of the pageant by the 2027 Queen and parent(s)/ legal guardian(s). Please review.

CHELAN COUNTY FAIR RODEO QUEEN REIGN AGREEMENT

CONTRACT

It is mandatory that the following set of rules be thoroughly understood and agreed to by the Queen (Titleholder) of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo, and her parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s). Failure to abide by these rules of conduct will be reason for dismissal from the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Program.

1. Titleholder will agree to live with her parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) throughout her year of reign, unless enrolled at an educational institution inside a 65-mile radius of Chelan, Douglas, Grant or Okanogan County, however, must be available to fulfill her obligations throughout her year of reign. Reference “Contestant Eligibility,” paragraph #2.
2. Titleholder will not cohabitate with a significant other (male/female) and will not be involved in a domestic partnership or similar intimate living relationship.
3. Titleholder must be under the control of Committee-approved chaperones during all public appearances. Chaperones have complete authority over the titleholder, and this authority is to be respected.
4. Titleholder must understand and agree that she will be available for appearances at any, and all times as decided by the Royalty Coordinator and/or Committee.
5. Titleholder must provide her own horse (a back-up horse should always be available). Horses must be capable of performing basic required maneuvers (i.e., arena presentation runs and walking parade routes) in a safe and controlled manner. Proper grooming and care of horse(s) is the sole responsibility of titleholder and her family.
6. Titleholder is responsible for the equipment, saddling, and transportation of her own horse to all parades and events when required to do so and must observe promptness in keeping engagements. The financial responsibility of transportation, wear and tear, and fuel is the responsibility of the titleholder and her family.
7. Titleholder must conform to requests regarding her personal grooming including, but not limited to, makeup, hair, and accessories.

8. Titleholder must agree to keep her Royalty uniforms in excellent condition, making sure all clothing is appropriately cleaned and always pressed using dry cleaning (unless otherwise designated). The expense for dry cleaning is the responsibility of the titleholder and her family.
9. Titleholder must agree to assist in the fundraising process or seeking of sponsorships for the benefit of her reign. This includes but is not limited to silent auction items for the coronation fundraiser and special travel.
10. Titleholder must agree to remain in official uniform during all public appearances. The Royalty Committee must approve any changes or alterations made to official uniforms. Titleholder is not to alter or make changes to official uniforms without permission from the Royalty Director.
11. Titleholder must understand that she is looked upon as representative of the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo, and all sponsors, directly or indirectly related to the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo. Understanding this, titleholder must refrain from any tobacco products, drinking alcohol, drug use, chewing gum while in public, limit personal cell phone use at events, and any type of unlawful behavior. As a representative of the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo, you will be required to present yourself in a dignified and wholesome manner. You will be required to smile and present yourself openly to the public regardless of personal issues. You will be required to represent the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo in grand entries, parades, luncheons, interviews, official openings, and anywhere the Committee and/or chaperone have agreed that you will be available. You will always represent yourself in a way you and the Committee will be proud that you are the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Queen.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

In consideration of my acceptance of the position of Titleholder for the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo, I hereby agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Committee and understand that any violation of the rules and regulations may disqualify me from participation. I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless committee members, agents, and employees or any of the contestants in the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Program, together with those persons and entities who donate horses, float trailers and vehicles, or buses for use by me from any claims resulting from the loss, accident or injury received by me in connection with participation by me in any event, performance, parade or any other activity. Also, I hereby release the right, title and claim of any photographs that may be taken by the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Committee, in its use in promotion and publicity. I certify that I have read the rules and regulations of the Chelan County Fair Rodeo Royalty Committee. Except as modified by this waiver, the Rules of Conduct form remains in full force and effect.

The Titleholder is also required to provide proof of insurance showing the Chelan County Fair and Rodeo and the Chelan County Fair Board as additional insureds.
