How to File for a Protection Order

- ❖ If you are currently experiencing domestic violence, harassment, stalking, or sexual assault, get help from your local domestic violence shelter or sexual assault center. Shelters provide safety planning, temporary shelter, legal advocacy, counseling, and other services. To find the program nearest you, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1.800.799.7233 or the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 1.800.656.4673.

Can I file for a protection order?

Yes, if both of these statements are true:

- ✓ You live or recently lived in Washington State.
- ✓ You are currently experiencing or have recently experienced domestic violence, harassment, stalking, or sexual assault, or you are seeking protection for a vulnerable adult.

What are in these instructions?

Part 1 explains the process of getting a protection order.

Part 2 explains how to fill out the Petition form.

Part 1. The Protection Order Process

How do I ask the court for a protection order?

You must fill out and file the Petition for Protection Order, form PO 001. It covers protection from domestic violence, stalking, harassment, and sexual assault, and protection for a vulnerable adult. It lets you ask for a temporary protection order that starts right away, and a full protection order that can last a year or longer, if approved by a judge.

- ❖ Either a judge or a court commissioner could read your petition. We use “judge” to refer to both.
 - ❖ Some counties may offer online forms or ways to ask for a protection order online. Ask the court clerk for availability.

What other forms will I need?

- ✓ Law Enforcement and Confidential Information, form PO 003 - This form does not go into the public court file and is not given to the restrained person. Law enforcement needs this form to find and identify the restrained person when serving them documents and enforcing your order.
- ✓ If you want immediate protection, fill out the Temporary Protection Order and Hearing Notice, form PO 030. Follow the instructions for that form.
- ✓ If you want the restrained person to surrender firearms and other dangerous weapons or be prohibited from buying them, fill out Attachment E: Firearms Identification, and the Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, form WS 001.

Can I get help filling out these forms?

Ask the court clerk about local victim services organizations with advocates who can help you fill out the forms.

Who can I protect?

If you are an adult (age 18 or older), you can protect:

- ✓ Yourself.
- ✓ Children under age 18 (minor children) if you are their parent, legal guardian, or custodian.
- ✓ Another adult if they qualify as a “vulnerable adult” or cannot otherwise file for themselves because of age, disability, health, or inaccessibility.

For domestic violence, you can also protect:

- ✓ Minor children in your family or household (even if you are not the parent, legal guardian, or custodian).
- ✓ Vulnerable adults in your family or household.

If you are age 15-17, you can protect:

- ✓ Yourself.
- ✓ Minor children in your family or household if the minor chooses you to file on their behalf. You must be capable of pursuing what the minor says they want or need out of the case (their “stated interest”).

If you are under age 15, someone must file for you.

What if I am filing to protect a vulnerable adult?

You must fill out the forms listed above plus an extra form: Notice to the Vulnerable Adult, form PO 029. You can get that form at <https://www.courts.wa.gov/forms/> or ask the court clerk.

What protection can I ask for?

The petition lists many types of protections in section 13. Choose everything you believe will best protect you and/or anyone else you are petitioning for.

What if the restrained person has firearms or other weapons?

You can ask the court to order the restrained person to surrender their weapons. Fill out section O. Surrender Weapons, and the court will decide whether to grant your request. If you request firearm surrender, you also need to fill out Attachment E: Firearm Identification Worksheet, and file it with your completed petition. Also bring the Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, form WS 001, for the judge to finish filling out and sign.

- ❖ Safety Alert! If you have concerns about firearms, you can ask the court to order the restrained person to surrender weapons at the time the judge issues the temporary order. You can also contact law enforcement where the restrained person lives to let them know you want to be contacted if any firearms are about to be released back to the restrained person.

What happens after I file the petition?

Your completed petition will be:

- ✓ Filed as a public court record to start a civil court case.
- ✓ Served on the person from whom you need protection. (We call this person the “restrained person”.)

The court will use the information to decide:

- ✓ If the court has authority (jurisdiction) over you and the restrained person.
- ✓ If the restrained person's behavior meets the legal definition of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or harassment. Definitions are in the petition on Attachment A.
- ✓ For vulnerable adults, if the behavior meets the legal definition of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect. Definitions are in the petition on Attachment B.
- ✓ For domestic violence, if the relationship between you and the restrained person meets the legal definition of intimate partner, family, or household member. If it does not, the judge may give you a different type of protection order.
- ✓ What type of protections (restraints) to order, if any.

What if I need protection right now?

You can use the Petition form to ask for immediate protection. On the form, you must explain how you or someone else may be seriously harmed if you do not get protection now, before the restrained person gets notice.

You should file your petition along with any other written statements, printed photos, or documents that help prove what you are saying is true. This is called "supporting evidence". It is helpful, but not required.

A judge will read your petition and any supporting evidence the same day you file, or the next working court day if you file later in the day or when the court is closed.

If the judge decides that serious immediate harm or irreparable injury could occur, the judge may issue a temporary order to start right away. The temporary order will last until the court has a full hearing (within 14 days). Even if the judge does not grant a temporary order, the judge will still set a hearing for a full order if you meet the legal requirements.

You must go to the full hearing. The restrained person must be notified about the full hearing and has a right to go to the hearing.

❖ If the judge decides you do not meet the legal requirements, they will not schedule a hearing. You will not get a protection order. You will have 14 days to edit (amend) your petition with more information and ask the judge to review it again.

Your temporary order is in effect from the moment the judge signs it. But the police can only enforce the order if there is proof the restrained person was served with a copy of the order.

How will the restrained person find out about the order?

The restrained person should be served as soon as possible. They must be served at least 5 court days before the hearing. They must be served with:

- ✓ your petition
- ✓ temporary order and notice of hearing
- ✓ order to surrender weapons issued without notice (if the judge ordered this)
- ✓ supporting evidence (if you filed any)

Does anyone else need to be served?

If the restrained person is under age 18, their parents or legal guardians must also be served.

If you are filing on behalf of a vulnerable adult, you must also have the notice, petition, and any temporary order and order to surrender weapons served on the vulnerable adult at least 5 court days before the full hearing. If the vulnerable adult has a legal guardian or conservator, that person must also be served.

Who will serve the order, and how will they do it?

Your temporary order will say who should serve the order. A law enforcement agency must hand deliver (personally serve) the order if any of these are true:

- ✓ the judge ordered weapons surrender
- ✓ the judge ordered transfer of child custody
- ✓ you and the restrained person live together and the judge ordered the restrained person to leave the home
- ✓ the restrained person is in jail or prison

❖ Vulnerable Adult Exception! Personal service is required if you are filing to protect someone else who is a vulnerable adult. They have the right to know that you are filing on their behalf. This personal service does not have to be done by law enforcement.

In other cases, the restrained person may be served electronically or personally by any of these:

- ✓ a law enforcement agency in the county or town where the restrained person lives or works (they will serve for free)
- ✓ a hired professional process server (this costs money)
- ✓ an adult (age 18 or over) who is not a party to the protection order case

For more information on how to serve, including electronically, see the Instructions for Proof of Service, form POi 004.

If law enforcement will be serving, the clerk's office will send them a service packet with copies of all the documents to be served. You will also receive a copy of the service packet to keep for your records. Law enforcement will use the information you put in the Law Enforcement and Confidential Information form to find and serve the restrained person. Law Enforcement will send proof of service to the court clerk.

If the order says the protected person shall make private arrangements for service, the clerk's office will give you the service packet. You must find a process server or another adult to serve the packet on the restrained person.

❖ Service Tip! Ask the clerk for a copy of the service packet to keep on hand. If law enforcement is called in an emergency, you can give the service packet to the officer on the scene to serve the restrained person at that time. This is sometimes called a "911 service packet."

How can I prove the restrained person was served?

Whoever serves the restrained person must fill out written proof of service (also called a "return of service" or "affidavit of service"). They can use form PO 004, Proof of Service. They may give you the completed Proof of Service form for you to file with the court clerk, or they can file it themselves.

Proof of service must be filed with the court clerk before or at the full hearing. If it is not, the hearing cannot go forward.

How do I know if the Temporary Order was served?

You can register your protection order with WA Protective Order Service. This free, automated service lets you know when an order has been served. Call 1-877-846-3492 or visit www.vinelink.com to learn more.

If you know the restrained person has not been served, but you still want or need the temporary order, you must appear for the hearing and ask for an extension (a continuance) of the temporary order.

- ❖ Safety Alert! Even if you have a temporary protection order, you must continue to take steps for you and your children to remain safe – especially around the time the order is served.
 - ❖ A note about firearms: If the court has issued an Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, the restrained person is required to immediately surrender their firearms to law enforcement when they are served. If that does not occur for some reason, this could increase your level of risk. A domestic violence or other advocate can help you do safety planning around this issue. You may call 911 to report if you believe the restrained person still has weapons.

How do I get a Protection Order?

After you file your petition, there are at least 2 steps in court.

- ✓ Step 1: Petition and Temporary Order. A judge will review your petition and any supporting evidence to see if you meet the requirements for any type of protection order. You may have to appear at the temporary order hearing. This should happen the same day you file, or the next working court day if you file later in the day or when the court is closed. If you meet the legal requirements, the judge will schedule a full hearing. The judge may also issue a temporary order.
- ✓ Step 2: Full Hearing. At the full hearing, the judge will decide whether to issue a final Protection Order. Usually a final Protection Order lasts for at least a year. You can ask for a shorter or longer order, based on your needs, in the petition.

How do I get ready for the full hearing?

- ✓ Make some notes to yourself about the main points to make when it is your turn to talk at the full hearing. You may have no more than 5 minutes to speak. You can refer to what you wrote in the Petition.
- ✓ If your hearing is in person, get to the courthouse early. You can request to attend the hearing remotely. If possible, do not bring your children. Check in advance to see if your court has policies on bringing the children to the hearing.
- ✓ If your hearing is by phone or video, make sure you know how you will join the hearing. If you aren't sure, contact your court to ask. Test everything ahead of time, if you can. Check how to mute and unmute your phone or audio.

I cannot make it to the full hearing. What happens if I just don't show up?

If you do not appear at your full hearing, the judge will dismiss your temporary order. If you know in advance that you cannot make the full hearing, contact the court clerk, or the department listed on the How to Appear information you were given when you filed, to see about rescheduling.

Will the restrained person be at the full hearing?

The restrained person can, but is not required to, go to the full hearing. If the restrained person does not show up, but was properly served at least 5 court days before the full hearing, the judge can go ahead without the restrained person.

If the case is ready for the full hearing, the judge will review the record, let the parties speak, hear from other witnesses if necessary and material, and then make a decision.

What if the restrained person was not served in time?

If the restrained person has not been served 5 court days in advance of your full hearing, you must still go to the hearing if you want the temporary protection order extended to allow time for service. Even if the respondent didn't receive 5 court days' notice but was served with the order, you may contact the police to enforce the order if there are any violations.

Can I have witnesses testify at the full hearing to help my case?

Witnesses do not usually testify at protection order hearings. Witnesses can file a declaration form describing what they saw or heard. Use form PO 018 Declaration, to make sure it is in the proper format.

You must file witness declarations, and any other documents you want the judge to consider, with the court clerk and have the restrained person served with a copy before the hearing date. If the restrained person does not get these copies in advance, the court may reschedule the hearing to give everyone time to read them. The reverse is also true: the restrained person must provide you with copies of anything they file. You have the same right to ask for more time to review copies of anything served on you at the last minute.

What is a Hope Card and how can I get one?

A Hope Card is a small card you can easily carry that has some details of your protection order. It's one way to show you have a full protection order. You can request one, without cost for the one and a replacement, at <https://www.courts.wa.gov/hopecard/>.

Part 2. How to fill out the Petition form

- ❖ Type or print (write) clearly! If writing, then use black or blue ink only.
 - ❖ Privacy Warning! The restrained person will see this Petition and any other evidence you file with the court. This information is also available to the public for anyone to see.
 - ❖ Before you file any attachments, you can black out/cover up (redact) any sensitive information. Examples: your home address and account numbers (leave last 4 digits).

Type of Court

At the top left, put "Superior" or "District" in front of/before "Court of Washington", depending on where you want to file. If you are unsure, leave it blank.

You can start your case in Superior or District Court, whichever is more convenient. In some cases (such as those involving property, keeping the restrained person from a shared home, and minors), District Court can give you a temporary order, but then must send your case to Superior Court for the full hearing.

County or District

This section is asking for the name of the county or district court you are filing your petition in.

On the next line "For _____", put the county or district where you will be filing. You can file in the county where you (or a child to be protected) live, or in any of these counties:

- Where something happened that made you seek this protection order
 - Where you lived before moving, if you moved because of the restrained person's behavior
 - With the court closest to where you live now, or closest to where you lived before moving because of the restrained person's behavior

Petitioner and Respondent

Put your name (first, middle initial, last) as the "Petitioner" and your date of birth.

- ❖ On behalf of... If you are filing only on behalf of a minor or vulnerable adult (not for yourself), you must put your name first on the Petitioner line, then "on behalf of" (or "OBO") their name and their date of birth. If a minor, you may use the minor's initials without the date of birth (you must provide the full name and date of birth in PO 003 LECIF). Example: Jane Doe OBO Susie Doe 04/01/2010

Put the restrained person's first, middle initial, and last name, and date of birth as the "Respondent".

The person who needs the protection is the "protected person". This can be you or the person you are filing for. The person you are seeking protection against is the "restrained person".

- ❖ Filing within a family law case. If you are filing for a protection order as part of a divorce, parenting plan, or other family law case, list the petitioner and the restrained person's names the same way they are listed in your family law case. You should also put your family law case number.

Numbered Sections

1. Choose the type of protection order that best fits your circumstances.

Choose just one option. Read the definitions in Attachment A and B to help you decide. A judge might decide that you do not qualify for the type of order you chose, but you do for a different type, and issue the other type of order. You will not have to file a new petition.

If you are asking for a Vulnerable Adult Protection Order, you must also fill out Attachment B and file it with your Petition.

2. Is there another type of order that fits your situation?

If you believe so, list it here. This helps the judge know what other type of order may apply, if you do not qualify for your first choice.

3. Who should the order restrain?

Put the name of the person you need protection from. Check the appropriate box for their age. This person is usually the "Respondent," except for some filings within a family law case. (See above.)

4. Who should the order protect?

Check if you are protecting yourself and/or minor children, or someone else.

To protect yourself, put your name. Anyone age 15 or older may file to protect themselves.

For minor children, check the appropriate box for your relationship to the children. Put the children's names and other details.

❖ Important! If the restrained person is a parent of any of the children, you should fill out Attachment C: Child Custody. If you are not a parent of any of the children, you should fill out Attachment D: Non-parents protecting children (ICWA). You must include these Attachments with your Petition if they apply.

❖ Teenagers age 15 – 17: You can check "Me" and put your own name to file for yourself. You do not have to fill out the "Minor Children" table about yourself. You can use the Minor Children section to protect other children in your family or household, if they have chosen you to file protection for them and you are capable of pursuing what they say they want in this case.

To protect someone else, check if they are a vulnerable adult or otherwise cannot file for themselves, and put their name. See the definition and fill out Attachment B for a vulnerable adult.

If someone is not a vulnerable adult but cannot file for themselves, explain why. This option is only available for sexual assault, stalking, or anti-harassment orders.

5. Service Address

You must give an address where the court and restrained person can serve you documents for this case. You can keep your home address private by giving a different mailing address.

If you agree to be served by email, you should also give an email address. You can set up a separate email account just for this case. Check your mail and email regularly.

❖ Do not put any confidential addresses or confidential information in the petition or temporary order. The restrained person will get a copy of these forms.

6. Interpreter

Check if you need an interpreter. If yes, put the language needed. You may still need to request an interpreter separately. You will get instructions about that with your temporary order or other order setting a hearing.

7. Accommodations

You can ask the court for disability accommodations, if needed.

8. How do the parties know each other?

Check all the boxes that apply for any adult or minor protected person's relationship with the restrained person. If none of those apply, then put the relationship under "Other".

9. Why are you filing in this county and state?

Check the appropriate box.

10. Restrained Person's Residence

Check the appropriate box. List the city or county if known and in Washington.

11. Are there other court cases involving the parties or any children?

Check the appropriate box. If yes, then fill out the table below with information about each case.

You, or the minor, and the restrained person may have other court cases together. There may be divorce, parentage, other restraining, protection, or no-contact orders, or criminal cases. The judge needs to know about any other cases to avoid issuing an order that conflicts with an order from another court.

12. Immediate Protection

Check yes if you want a temporary order to start right away, before the restrained person is notified. If you check yes, briefly explain how you or anyone else might be harmed if you do not get protection now. Use the lines below question 13.

13. Immediate Weapons Surrender

Check yes if the restrained person has weapons, or access to weapons, that you want the restrained person to immediately surrender. If you check yes, briefly explain how you or anyone else might be harmed if a weapons surrender order is not issued now. Use the lines below question 13.

14. What protections do you need?

Check the appropriate boxes in A - Z for all the protections you want the court to order. Note: The judge might not order everything you asked for in either a temporary or a final order. You must ask for all protections you think you need in the petition. You can ask to remove protections you feel you no longer need, when you appear for your full order, but you cannot ask for protections that you did not include in your petition.

You must be clear about which people and places you want protected within each restraint that asks for those details. If you are protecting minor children, you can choose if you want a restraint to apply to all children covered by the order, or just certain children named in that section.

In section O. Surrender Weapons, answer the questions about firearms even if you are not asking for surrender of weapons. State law requires firearm prohibitions for some protection orders, even if you are not specifically asking for that protection. If you answer “Yes” to the restrained person possessing or owning firearms, then complete

Attachment E.

You can leave section Z. Other blank or use it to list any other specific restraints you want the judge to order.

15. Do you need help from law enforcement?

Check any appropriate boxes that apply to your situation. You may leave this blank if assistance is not needed.

Even if the court orders law enforcement help, you may still have to contact law enforcement to ask for a civil standby.

16. How long do you need this order to last?

Check the appropriate box. If you want a protection order for something other than 1 year, put how long and explain why.

17. Do you want to be notified if the restrained person petitions for the restoration of firearms in the future?

Check the appropriate box. This only affects a prosecutor’s duty to notify you if there is a criminal case prohibiting firearms rights and the restrained person petitions to have firearm rights restored. Law enforcement has a separate duty to notify you before firearms are returned, if any were surrendered or recovered from the Restrained Person pursuant to this protection order or pursuant to a crime that resulted in the firearm surrender.

18. Most Recent Incident

Give a detailed explanation of what happened most recently that is causing you to seek protection. Include dates and details. (See examples below).

19. Past Incidents

What, if anything, happened in the past? Give a detailed explanation including dates. (See examples below).

Important! Read the instructions for your statement in the black box above question 16 on the petition. This is where you explain why you need a protection order.

The judge does not research other cases or police records to know your history. The judge will not know what happened unless you put it in your written statement. If you do not include a particular incident in your statement, you may not have a chance to tell the judge at the hearing.

You must give details (who, what, where, when, how).

Consider these questions:

- Has the Restrained Person ever strangled or choked you?
- Has the Restrained Person ever shamed you, embarrassed you, or put you down?

- Has the Restrained Person ever blamed you for their actions and abusive behavior?
- Has the Restrained Person tracked you in person, kept track of your whereabouts, kept track of your social media use or social interactions?
- Has the Restrained Person yelled at you or called you names?
- Has the Restrained Person isolated you from your family and/or friends?
- Has the Restrained Person ever prevented you from contacting help (a family member, a friend, or law enforcement), taken your cell phone, or broken your cell phone?
- Has the Restrained Person harmed or threatened to harm your pets or other animals?
- Does the Restrained Person control your money, what you buy, or your bank account?
- Has the Restrained Person been destructive of your personal belongings or home?
- Are you afraid of the Restrained Person?
- Has the Restrained Person ever threatened or acted to put at risk your immigration status (including holding control over your legal documents) or your work?
- Has the Restrained Person ever made threats of self-harm or suicide?

Examples:

- It is better to say “On Sunday, January 12, at 2:00 a.m., Terry slapped my face” rather than “On Sunday Terry assaulted me.”
- It is better to say “Terry threatened to kill me if I left the house. He said ‘You leave and I will kill you’” rather than “Terry threatened me.”
- It is better to say “Terry drives by me while I’m waiting at the bus stop after work every Monday evening” rather than “Terry is stalking me.”
- It is better to say “Terry sends me emails or text messages [include number] times a day. I texted Terry to stop; but Terry keeps sending the messages” rather than “Terry cyber stalks me.”
- It is better to say “Terry used my checking account to pay their credit card bill” rather than “Terry steals from me.”
- It is better to say “On Friday, October 18, around 10 p.m., Erin put their hands down my pants and grabbed my genitals, even though I said, ‘No’” rather than “Erin touched me.”
- It is better to say, “On Saturday, May 5 at 10:00 p.m., Erin held me down with his body weight and forced me to have sex in my living room” rather than “Erin assaulted me.”
- It is better to say, “Erin told me if I didn’t agree to have sex with him, he would hurt me. He said, ‘If you don’t want to get hurt, you better keep quiet’” rather than “Erin threatened me.”
- It is better to say “Erin has sent me 20 messages, including text and email, saying that they will find and harm me.” Rather than “Erin harasses me.”

20. Medical Treatment

If you ever had to get medical treatment for something related to this petition, explain what, when, where, and why. Describe the treatment and any follow up. You can attach copies of treatment records, if you have them, but they will not be kept private. Use a black permanent marker, whiteout, or black pen to black out/cover up (redact) any sensitive information like your home address, ID number, or other details you do not want the public to see.

Example: "I received treatment at the hospital on Sunday, May 6, around 1 or 2 a.m. for my injuries. The treatment included a physical exam and follow-up appointment the next week."

❖ Important! See the privacy warning below question 22 on the petition.

21. Suicidal Behavior

If the restrained person has a history of suicidal behavior, give details of any threats of self-harm or suicide attempts made, including dates.

22. Restrained Person's Substance Abuse

Check any appropriate boxes.

23. Minors Needing Protection, if any

You can put here any other information about the restrained person's acts towards minors that you have not put somewhere else in the petition.

24. Supporting Evidence

Supporting evidence is anything that helps prove what you are saying is true. You do not have to submit any supporting evidence beyond your statement in the petition, but if you have anything else you want the judge to see, you should submit it with your petition. If you wait until later, the restrained person may ask for more time to respond and the judge may reschedule your hearing.

Check all appropriate boxes and attach the evidence to the petition. Number each page. Clearly identify what each piece of evidence is by adding labels and dates to pictures, texts or emails. This evidence will be filed in a public record. Black out information you do not want anyone to see.

Count Attached Pages

Count the total number of pages you are attaching to your petition. You must include Attachment A (Definitions). Include Attachments B, C, D, E, or F only if they apply. Also, include any supporting evidence in your page count. Put the total number of pages in the "____ pages" space below the privacy warning and "I certify under penalty of perjury..."

Sign and Date

Put the city and state where you are signing this. (This can be different than where you live.) Date, sign, and print your name.

Attachments A - E

Attachment A gives definitions. There is nothing to fill out.

Fill out Attachment B: Vulnerable Adult, if you are asking to protect a vulnerable adult.

Attachments C and D are for minor children.

- Fill out Attachment C: Child Custody, if the restrained person is a parent of any of the children.
- Fill out Attachment D: Non-parents protecting children (ICWA), if you are asking to protect a child and you are not the child's parent.

Remove attachments B, C, D, or E if it does not apply. (Attachment A always applies.)

Attachment E is completed only if the restrained person possesses or owns firearms.

After filling out the forms: Go to Court

Bring your completed petition and temporary order to the clerk's office of the local court. Also, bring the firearms worksheet and order to surrender weapons, if needed. Ask the clerk if it is possible to file electronically, if you are interested in that option. They will direct you further.

Law Enforcement and Confidential Information (LECIF)

Clerk: Do not file in a public access file. In criminal cases, do not file. Give to law enforcement.

2. Other people with a legal right to spend time with the children

Do you know of anyone besides yourself and Respondent who has or claims to have a legal right to spend time with the children?

☐ No.

☐ Yes. (Name/s) _____ has or claims to have a legal right to spend time with the children because:

3. Authority Over the Children (Jurisdiction) (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

The court can make an order protecting the children because:

- ☐ Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children and the court still has authority to make other orders for the children.
- ☐ Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the child's home state because (check all that apply):
- ☐ The children lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if a child is less than 6 months old, the child has lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
- ☐ There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if a child is less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
- ☐ The children do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
- ☐ The children do not have another home state.
- ☐ No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for the children or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:
- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
 - There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.
- ☐ Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be the children's home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
- ☐ Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for the children because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or their parent, brother, or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):
- ☐ A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).
- ☐ There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.
- ☐ Other reason (specify): _____

Attachment D: Non-Parents Protecting Children (ICWA)

Only complete this attachment if you are asking to protect any children who are not your own. If not, skip or remove this attachment.

Non-Parents must comply with the Indian Child Welfare Acts (ICWA). If you are not a legal parent of a minor child you are asking to protect, you must find out if the minor is or may be an Indian child. If so, the federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts will apply to your case. This does not apply to parents.

Parents: You do not have to answer these questions about your own children.

1. Tribal Heritage

If there is a reason to know that a child has tribal heritage (including ancestry or familial political affiliation), the court must treat the child as an Indian child unless and until the affected tribe/s decide otherwise or decline to respond after receiving proper notice.

An Indian child is a child who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is the biological child of an Indian tribe member and is eligible for membership. Tribes decide their own membership.

Could any of the children be Indian children? (Check all that apply):

☐ No. These children are not Indian children (name/s): _____

I know this because (explain if the children have no tribal heritage, or if any possible tribal heritage has already been explored and decided in another court proceeding that complied with ICWA. Attach orders): _____

☐ Yes or maybe. These children are or may be Indian children. They have or may have heritage from the tribe/s listed below:

Children	Tribes
<input type="checkbox"/> All <input type="checkbox"/> (name/s):
<input type="checkbox"/> All <input type="checkbox"/> (name/s):

I will provide the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice (form GDN M 401) and a copy of this Petition to the tribe/s named above and other necessary people or agencies.

☐ I do not know if any of the children are Indian children or have tribal heritage. I have done the following things to find out:

Warning! You must find out if any of these children have tribal ancestry before a full order is issued.

2. Authority Over Indian Children (Jurisdiction)

- ☐ Does not apply. None of the children are Indian children.
- ☐ A state court can decide this case for any children who are or may be Indian children because:
 - ☐ (Children's Initials): _____ are not domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and are not wards of a tribal court. (25 U.S.C. § 1911)
 - ☐ (Children's Initials): _____ are domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and (check all that apply):
 - ☐ The children's tribe agrees to Washington State's concurrent jurisdiction.
 - ☐ The children's tribe decided not to use its exclusive jurisdiction (expressly declined). (RCW 13.38.060)
 - ☐ Washington State should exercise emergency jurisdiction for Indian children temporarily located off the reservation to protect the children from immediate physical damage or harm. (RCW 13.38.140)

How Do I Serve the Restrained Person with my Petition for a Protection Order?

What is “proof of service” and why does it matter?

Service is the act of giving legal papers to someone. Service is how the other party formally learns about the case and lets the court know they can begin making decisions that affect that person (this is called personal jurisdiction).

The law requires that all parties have a fair chance to go to their hearings and to receive all evidence that the court sees. The restrained person must be served with a petition and notice of the hearing (usually contained in the temporary order). If the restrained person is not served correctly, the court cannot decide the case until they are served correctly. Also, a protection order cannot be enforced unless the restrained person knows about it. You must prove that the restrained person was properly given the petition, notice of hearing, temporary order, and Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, if applicable, and all evidence that you want the court to review. If you don't, your case can be delayed or even dismissed.

After the restrained person is served the petition and temporary order(s), either party may file more evidence they want the court to consider. All parties have a right to see what the other party gave to the court. It is usually okay to serve this additional evidence by electronic or mail service.

Deadline! Protection orders must be served at least 5 court days before the hearing. For example, if your hearing is on a Friday and there are no holidays, papers must be served by Friday the week before. Weekends and holidays do not count towards the 5 days. Check with your court clerk for more information on deadlines.

What form do I use?

The form is called “Proof of Service.” This form can be used for all protection order cases except for Extreme Risk Protection Orders. You can find the Proof of Service form on the Washington Court Forms website here: <http://www.courts.wa.gov/forms/>. You can also search the internet for the form title, “PO 004 Proof of Service,” or ask the court clerk for help.

Who fills out the form?

The person who served the legal papers (the server) must complete the Proof of Service form. The person who started the case (the petitioner) cannot serve the petition and temporary order on the restrained person. The server must be over the age of 18. The server may be a police officer, Sheriff's deputy, other law enforcement officer, professional service provider, or any adult whom you trust to do it right and fill out the proof of service.

What are the different ways to serve legal papers?

1. Personal Service – The server hands the legal papers directly (in-person) to the person being served. This is the best kind of service and should be done whenever possible for the petition and temporary order(s).
2. Electronic Service – The server sends the legal papers by email, text, social media, or other technology. Electronic service can be okay. However, do not use electronic service for a petition and temporary order if any of these are true:
 - ✓ the restrained person is in jail or prison
 - ✓ the court ordered the restrained person to surrender firearms
 - ✓ the court ordered transfer of child custody

- ✓ the court ordered the restrained person to leave the residence that they share with the protected person
- ✓ the petition for a vulnerable adult protection order is filed by someone other than the vulnerable adult

For cases involving a restrained person who is in jail or prison, the surrender of firearms, the transfer of child custody or that requires the restrained person to leave the shared residence, only law enforcement can personally serve the petition and temporary order.

For cases involving a petition for a vulnerable adult protection order that is filed by someone other than the vulnerable adult, the petitioner can choose to have someone else serve the petition, temporary order, and notice to the restrained person. The court must allow electronic service in these cases after 2 unsuccessful attempts at personal service.

After the petition and temporary order are served, you may be able to use electronic service for any additional evidence that you want the court to review. If you are not sure if electronic service is allowed in this case, use personal service.

3. Service By Mail – For the petition and temporary order, you can ask the court to allow service by mail. Do not serve a petition and temporary order by mail unless you have a court order saying it is okay. The Order to Allow Service by Mail (form PO 025) has instructions for how to serve by mail.

For evidence filed after the petition is served, you can always serve by mail.

4. Service By Publication – If you cannot serve the restrained person in any other way, you can ask the court to allow service by publication in a newspaper. This costs money and takes more time. The Order for Service of Summons by Publication (form PO 026) has instructions for how to serve by publication. If you serve by publication, do not use the regular Proof of Service form. Instead, attach the newspaper's proof that the Summons was published to the Proof of Publication (Cover Sheet) (form All Civil 036).

How Do I Fill Out the Proof of Service Form?

It is important to fill out the whole form. It is important to file this form in the court file even if the other party was not served. Make sure you file this form with the court clerk so the judge can see it and determine next steps for service in your case.

Caption. At the beginning of the form at the top, write the parties' full names with middle initials, date of birth, and case number.

1. Write the server's full name. The form needs to be filled out by the person who served the other party.
2. Able to Serve: If service was successful, check the box for the type of service used.
 - ☐ Personal Service: Write the name of the person who was served, and the date, time, and address where the service happened.
 - ☐ Electronic Service: Write the name of the person served and the date service happened. Check the method of electronic service by selecting email, text messaging, social media application, or other technology. Provide the address, number, and any account or username used.

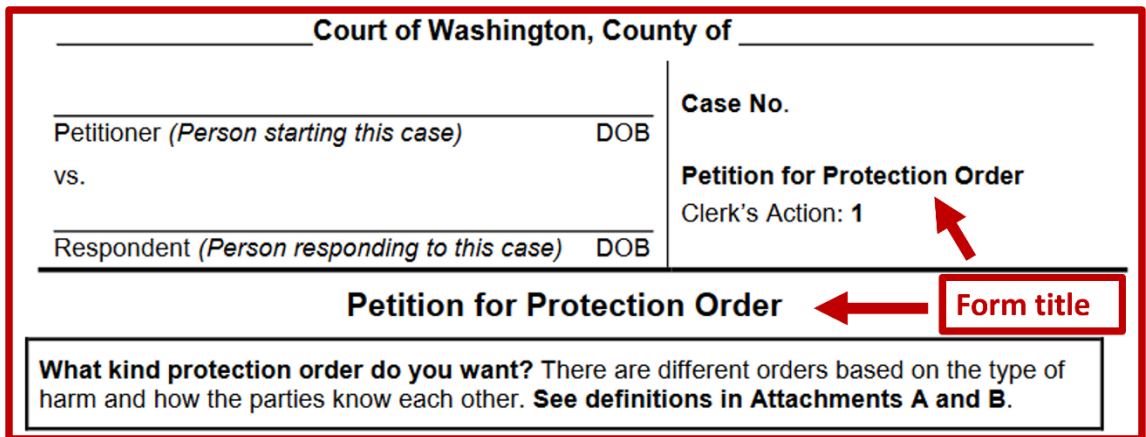

For example: user@gmail.com for email, 206-555-5555 for text, or through Facebook at User Name.

Check whether a “read receipt” or other reply was received.

[] Service by Mail: Write the name of the person served and date the documents were mailed. Be sure to mail 2 copies, postage prepaid: one by ordinary, first-class mail and one by other mail with certified or tracking information. Write the address that it was sent to.

3. Not Able to Serve: If you are not able to serve the other party, explain all the ways that service was tried. Include dates and times. Check whether an attempt at electronic service “bounced back” or was “undeliverable.” Check whether you were not able to mail court documents because you did not know the party’s last known address.
4. List of Documents: The server must list every document served by checking the box by the name of each document that was served and by using the “Other documents” section to add the titles of any documents served that are not listed. The title of documents can be found on the right side of the caption in all forms. It is also repeated under the caption in most forms.

6. Other: You can write anything else that the court should know about service. If service was not successful, write the reasons. For example, explain if the person was not at the location or the party moved. Also explain any concerning behavior of the restrained person at the time of service and any information they share about the possession of weapons, including any denials about firearm ownership/possession.

At the bottom of the form. Remember that the server, NOT the petitioner or respondent, must sign the form. It must be signed and sworn “under penalty of perjury” that the information in the form is true. ☐ Not Held. The court denies the request without a hearing.
(Complete the Findings section below.)

3. Findings.

A. ☐ Non-Appearance. ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent did not appear.

Temporary Order Findings

B. ☐ No Basis. Do not schedule hearing. The Petition for Protection Order does not list a specific incident and approximate date of behavior that would support a domestic violence, stalking, antiharassment, sexual assault, or vulnerable adult protection order as defined in RCW 7.105.100. The protected person should have 14 days to amend their petition before dismissal.

C. ☐ Notice Required. Schedule for full hearing. The protected person has not shown that there is a sufficient basis to enter a temporary order without notice to the ☐ opposing party ☐ vulnerable adult.

The court will grant or deny the protection order after a hearing with notice.

Final Order Findings

D. ☐ Request. The Protected Person requested dismissal of petition.

E. ☐ Service Unsuccessful or Impossible. All available methods of service have been attempted unsuccessfully or are not possible.

F. ☐ Insufficient Evidence. A preponderance of the evidence does not support issuing any type of protection order that this court has authority to issue.

G. ☐ Insufficient Evidence (Vulnerable Adult Contests). Clear, cogent, and convincing evidence has not established that there is abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult. (When a vulnerable adult protection order is contested by the vulnerable adult.)

H. ☐ Evidence. ☐ Protected Person ☐ Restrained Person supports their account of events with the following evidence (specify): _____

- I. ☐ Realignment. (DV or Harassment only) The original "Protected Person" is the abuser or harasser, and the original "Restrained Person" is the victim of domestic violence or unlawful harassment. The parties should be switched.

Renewal Findings

- J. ☐ The Restrained Person proved by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a substantial change in circumstances (describe): _____

and the Restrained Person will not:

- ☐ (for DV orders) resume acts of domestic violence against the Protected Person or the Protected Person's children or household members who are minors or vulnerable adults when the protection order expires.
- ☐ (for sexual assault orders) engage in, or attempt to engage in, physical or nonphysical contact with the Protected Person when the order expires.
- ☐ (for stalking orders) resume acts of stalking against the Protected Person or the Protected Person's family or household members when the order expires.
- ☐ (for anti-harassment orders) resume harassment of the Protected Person when the order expires.
- ☐ (for vulnerable adult orders) resume acts of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect against the vulnerable adult when the order expires.
- K. ☐ Late Filing. The Protected Person did not file for renewal before the order expired.

Modify or Terminate Findings:

- L. ☐ Protected Person's motion to modify or terminate a protection order is denied because:

- M. ☐ Restrained Person's motion to modify or terminate a protection order is denied because:

- ☐ Repeat Filing. The court finds that the Restrained Person has previously filed a motion to modify or terminate during the current 12-month period following entry of the order and is not eligible for the relief requested.
- ☐ No Adequate Cause. The restrained person did not establish adequate cause to modify or terminate. No hearing is necessary.

☐ Insufficient Evidence. A preponderance of the evidence failed to establish that there has been a substantial change in circumstances such that if the order is terminated or modified the Restrained Person will not resume, engage in, or attempt to engage in acts of:

☐ domestic violence.

☐ physical or nonphysical contact (for sexual assault protection orders).

☐ stalking.

☐ unlawful harassment.

☐ No Substantial Change. Since the protection order was entered, there has not been a substantial change in circumstances (describe): _____

(Check all that apply)

☐ The Restrained Person has committed or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other harmful acts against the Protected Person/s.

☐ The Restrained Person has violated the terms of the protection order.

☐ The Restrained Person has exhibited suicidal ideation or attempts.

☐ The Restrained Person has been convicted of criminal activity.

☐ The Restrained Person has:

- Not acknowledged responsibility for the acts of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, or behavior that resulted in entry of the protection order, and
- Not successfully completed perpetrator treatment or counseling.

☐ The Restrained Person has continued to abuse drugs or alcohol (if this was a factor in the protection order).

☐ The Protected Person has not voluntarily and knowingly consented to terminating the protection order.

☐ Other: _____

☐ Severe Acts. The Restrained Person proved that there has been a substantial change of circumstances; however, the court declines to terminate the protection order because the acts of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, unlawful harassment, and other harmful acts that resulted in the issuance of the protection order were of such severity that the order should not be terminated.

General Findings

N. ☐ Other: _____

4. Order

- ☐ Petition denied without a full hearing. 14 days to amend before dismissal. The petition does not contain allegations that could support issuing any type of protection order. The person who filed the petition has 14 days to file an amended petition. If an amended petition is not filed within 14 days, the case may be dismissed.

Temporary Order

- ☐ Temporary Order Denied. Full hearing to be held. The request for a temporary order is denied. The court will approve or deny the protection order after a full hearing with notice. The hearing date and time is shown on page 1.

Warning to Restrained Person! Failure to appear at the hearing may result in the court granting all of the relief requested in the petition. See How to Attend at the end of this order.

- ☐ Dismissed by request without prejudice. (check ORDSM (dismissed) above).

Final Order

- ☐ Dismissed without prejudice because (check one):

- ☐ Protected Person asked to terminate the order or did not appear at the hearing.
- ☐ All available methods of service have been attempted unsuccessfully or are not possible. Dismissal is over Protected Person's objection.

Any previously-entered temporary order and any Order to Surrender Weapons under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____.

(In caption above, check ORDSM (dismissed).)

- ☐ Denied on the merits after a hearing. The request for a full order is denied. Any previously-entered temporary order under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____.

(Check one (see RCW 7.105.362)):

- ☐ No Order to Surrender Weapons was issued under this case number. The case is dismissed.
- ☐ The court issues an Order Extending Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons (WS 400) extending the Order to Prohibit and Surrender Weapons until after the deadline for filing a motion for reconsideration or revision has passed and any timely filed motion has been resolved.
- ☐ Any previously-entered Order to Surrender Weapons under this case number expires today, upon the signing of this order or at (time) _____ and the case is dismissed. It would be manifestly unjust to allow the order to remain in effect for the reconsideration or revision period because (check all that apply):
- ☐ The Temporary Protection Order was entirely without merit.
- ☐ Petitioner was engaged in abusive use of litigation.
- ☐ Petitioner was exerting coercive control over the Restrained Person.
- ☐ Other reason (explain why it would be manifestly unjust): _____

☐ Denied. The deadline for filing a motion for reconsideration or revision has passed. The Protected Person has either failed to file a motion or the motion has been denied. The Order Extending the Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons (WS 400) is terminated and the case is dismissed.

☐ Petition denied and dismissed without a full hearing.

☐ No amended petition was filed within 14 days after denial.

☐ Amended petition filed but still insufficient to set for full hearing.

☐ Realignment (for domestic violence and harassment cases only). The parties are switched so that the original Protected Person is now restrained and the original Restrained Person is now protected.

☐ The court will issue a new Temporary Protection Order so that:

The Protected Person is: _____

The Restrained Person is: _____

Important! The new Protected Person must file a Petition for Protection Order, form PO 001, if they want protection to last beyond the temporary order.
