

As of Sept. 30, 2026:

Chelan County v. Chambers, case No. 22-2-00431-04. Chelan County issued a stop-work order and sued Mr. Tyler Chambers to enforce it. Chambers then filed a motion to dismiss the stop-work order. On July 29, 2025, Chelan County Superior Court Judge Travis Brandt denied the motion. The stop-work order remains in full force and effect. There has been no activity on this case since July 29, 2025.

Chelan-Douglas Land Trust v. Chambers, case No. 22-2-00766-04. The Chelan-Douglas Land Trust sued Mr. Chambers for trespass. Other than a periodic status report being filed, there has been no activity on this case. As of Sept. 11, 2026, the case is pending. Chelan County is not a party to this case.

Chambers v. Canlis, case No. 23-2-00028-04. Mr. Chambers sued Mr. Matthew Canlis, a neighbor, for trespass and interference with a business expectancy. On Aug. 28, 2026, Mr. Canlis filed for summary judgment, requesting the case be dismissed. The summary judgment motion is scheduled for hearing on Nov. 16, 2026. Chelan County is not a party to the case.

Chambers v. Chelan County Community Development, case No. 25-2-00780-04. Chambers filed a Land Use Petition Act as a result of the Chelan County Hearing Examiner's decision to affirm the MDNS issued to Chambers. The "Number One Canyon Community" intervened in the case. On Jan. 5, 2026, Judge Brandt entered an order authorizing intervention. There has been no activity on this case since then.