Where to file

How to file in Chelan County

Requirements

- Be a registered voter of the district and meet the residency requirements for the office for which you are filing. (see pages 16 - 17)
- Pay filing fee online with Visa, MasterCard, or American Express. Pay by cash or check. Your name will not appear on any official lists as a candidate for office until your Declaration of Candidacy is approved and your filing fee is paid.
- Provide a valid email address.

Candidates may file online at elections.chelancountywa.gov

The online filing tool will give you step by step instructions, email you a confirmation notice, alert you when other candidates file in your race, and provide an opportunity to submit your local voters' pamphlet information.

When to file

File online

Monday, May 16 at 9:00 a.m. - Friday, May 20 at 4:00 p.m.

Any declaration received prior to May 2nd will be returned and the candidate shall be permitted to re-submit their declaration during the filing period. All declarations must be received no later than 5pm on the last day of filing. All mail-in declarations must include the filing fee, if applicable (RCW 29A.24.081)
Mail to: Chelan County Elections, 350 Orondo Ave. STE 306 Level 3, Wenatchee WA 98801

Campaign Information

It is highly recommended that when filing for office, you provide a campaign mailing address, telephone number, and website.

If you do not provide a campaign mailing address, your voter registration mailing address will be published online in the list of candidates who have filed.

Withdrawal of Filing RCW 29A.24.131

A candidate may withdraw a Declaration of Candidacy in writing through Monday, May 23, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. There shall be no withdrawal period for Declarations of Candidacy filed during special filing periods. Filing fees are not refundable. A withdrawal form is available at the Chelan County Elections Office or online at elections.chelancountywa.gov.

Order of Appearance on Ballots and in Voters' Pamphlet

The order of candidates' names on the Primary Election ballot and in the Primary Election local voters' pamphlet is determined by lot drawing. The lot drawing occurs after the close of filing on Friday, May 27, 2022. The process is open to the public and begins after the candidate filings have been proofed for accuracy. (RCW 29A.36.131)

In the General Election, the candidate with the most votes in the Primary Election will be listed first on the ballot, as well as in the General Election local voters' pamphlet.

If no Primary Election is held for an office, candidates will appear in lot draw order on the General Election ballot.

Local Voters' Pamphlet

The Administrative Rules -- What the law says

RCW 29A.32.230 requires the Auditor to adopt and publish administrative rules governing the format and content of the local voters' pamphlet. These rules must include: (a) Limits on the length and deadlines for submission of candidates' statements; (b) the basis for rejecting all or any part of a candidates' statement; and (c) an administrative appeal process in the case of such rejection.

Submission Deadlines

The deadline to submit your local voters' pamphlet information online is Friday, May 27, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

Basis for Rejection

All or any part of a candidates' statement may be rejected by the Elections Division if it includes biographical information, statements, photos, or contact information that:

- Is obscene;
- Is libelous;
- Contains a commercial advertisement;
- Contains matter prohibited by law from distribution through the mail;
- Contains matter not limited to the candidate himself or herself or the political office;
- Contains matter that is otherwise inappropriate or that does not comply with applicable law; or
- Was received after the submittal deadline.

Photos will be rejected that do not meet the statutory and administrative criteria outlined on page 12.

Helpful Tips

The candidates' statement portion of the local voters' pamphlet is your opportunity to introduce yourself to the voters. It can be thought of as your resume to the voters.

Do:

- Offer your vision to the voters. Be positive.
- Describe what you want to accomplish, if elected.
- Describe what makes you an excellent candidate.

Don't:

- Criticize your opponent or other individuals.
- Name people specifically or make references to "my opponent" or "the incumbent."
- Make false or misleading statements.

As part of your statement you may wish to explain:

- Who – Who you are.
- What – What you will do if elected.
- When – The timeframe for your goals or accomplishments.
- Where – You will make changes.
- Why – Are you the best candidate for the office?
- How – You will make changes or accomplish your goals for the office.

GOOD!	Not Allowed!
I do not support nor will I vote for tax increases.	(Opponent's Name) voted to increase taxes.
Using my financial background, I will make sure your money is spent wisely under my guidance.	The incumbent has wasted taxpayer's money. The incumbent has cost you millions and millions of dollars on poorly run projects.
If elected, I will ensure all laws are followed and applied fairly.	My opponent ignores the law. He regularly breaks the rules.
I do not support the following projects...	My opponent supports many risky projects and boondoggles.
Using my skills and abilities. I will bring improved decision making to the council.	The current council is made up of tax-loving bureaucrats.
I will bring new ideas and integrity to the city council.	The mayor and the entire city council are unimaginative and have offered no new ideas.

Submit your Local Voters' Pamphlet information online

You may submit your voters' pamphlet information when you file for office or you may submit later. If you choose to submit your voters' pamphlet information later, you will receive an email after your filing has been approved with a link to submit your statement and photo.

To meet the deadline, candidates should begin the upload process as early as possible after they file for office. There is no benefit to delaying. Local voters' pamphlet submissions are kept confidential. A candidate's submission will not be released until the deadline for submission of all statements has passed and the submissions have been approved by the Election's Office.

Any candidate who experiences technical problems should call the Elections Office immediately. Technical difficulties will not excuse candidates from meeting the deadline.

You may NOT submit a new statement for the General Election. The same local voters' pamphlet information submitted will be used for both the Primary Election and General Election.

Local Voters' Pamphlet Publication

Chelan County publishes an official local voters' pamphlet for all elections. It is available in both printed and electronic form on the Elections Office website.

In state primary elections, as a courtesy, Chelan County may re-print state offices and candidates in the local voters' pamphlet. The Office of the Secretary of State is responsible for accepting and approving voters' pamphlet information for state offices, congressional offices, legislative offices and certain judicial offices. The requirements and rules for these statements may differ from the laws and local rules for Chelan County candidates.

Biographical Information

Biographical Information

The biographical information must be 100 words or less allocated between four section headings.

Biographical information should be organized in accordance with the four subsection headings listed below. Subsection headings are not included in the word count.

Elected Experience. (Judges use Legal/Judicial Experience)

Other Professional Experience.

Education.

Community Service.

When a candidate doesn't submit information for a subsection heading, "No information submitted" will appear in that subsection area.

Statement

Candidate Statement

Length (RCW 29A.32.121)

The word limit for candidate statements is as follows:

State Senator – 200 words

State Representative – 100 words

County offices – 200 words

Judicial offices – 200 words

All other local offices – 200 words

Each part of a hyphenated or slashed word will be counted as a separate word. (Example - "Around-the-corner" = 3 words)

Shortening Biographical Information and Candidate Statements

Biographical information and candidate statements exceeding the word limits will be shortened by the Elections Office without notice and without consulting the candidate.

Submissions are shortened by deleting full sentences, starting from the end of the biographical information or candidate statement until the word limit for that section is reached.

Stay within the word limit. Candidates are not given an opportunity to correct submissions.

Biographical information and candidate statement format

Italics may be used to emphasize specific words or sentences. Any other formatting, such as all caps, bold, or underlining, is not allowed. Caps, bold, and underlines will be converted to italics by the Elections Office.

Up to four paragraphs may be used in the candidate statement.

Lists and bullets are not allowed. Lists and bullets will be converted by the Elections Office to a block paragraph, with a semicolon to separate each item.

Candidate Photo Rules RCW 29A.32.110, WAC 434-381-140

Photographs

You may upload one portrait photo. (Head and shoulders) Photos should be less than 1 MB in size. (If larger, photo will take too long to load for the online guide.) Image size correction will not be made by Chelan County.

Clothing or insignia that suggest holding a public office are not allowed (e.g., judicial robes, law enforcement or military uniforms).

Color or black and white photo. (Color will be used in the online guide and converted to black and white for the printed local voters' pamphlet.)

Candidate photos from previous local voters' pamphlets are not available for reuse. Candidate must submit a new photo online.

Candidate Contact Information

If provided, a candidate's campaign email address, website address and phone number will be printed in the local voters' pamphlet. Mailing addresses will not be printed.

General Provisions Applicable to All Submissions

The contents of biographical information, candidate statements, photos and contact information are the sole responsibility of the authors.

Submissions don't represent the position of the Elections Office or Chelan County and neither is responsible for the validity or accuracy of the submissions.

Submissions should be edited and prepared as carefully as one would edit and prepare a resume. Spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors will not be corrected. Statement content will be printed exactly as received, if it complies with format specifications and content rules.

Be certain that email, web addresses, and phone numbers are accurate, functional, and not confidential or private.

Once submitted, all biographical information, statements, and photos are final. They can't be amended by the candidate.

All submissions for inclusion in the local voters' pamphlet are due by Friday, May 27, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

No exceptions are allowed. If a submission is not received by the deadline, the text "No photo submitted", "No information submitted", and/or "No statement submitted" will appear in the applicable sections.

Viewing Biographical Information and Candidate Statements

After all biographical information and candidate statements have been approved, candidates will receive a link to view the statements.

Candidates will not be permitted to make changes or correct the information submitted.

Appeal

RCW 29A.32.230

If all or any part of the biographical information, candidate statement, photo, or contact information is rejected by the Elections Office manager, a written notice of rejection will be sent to the proponent by email not more than five business days after the deadline for the local voters' pamphlet submittal and shall set forth specific grounds for the rejection.

Any candidate whose submission is rejected may appeal the Elections Office manager's decision to the Auditor. A written notice of appeal shall be submitted to the Auditor by email (auditor@co.chelan.wa.us) not more than 48 hours after the notice of rejection was sent and shall set forth the specific grounds for appeal. The Auditor shall issue a written decision granting or denying the appeal by email not more than 48 hours after receiving the notice of appeal. The decision of the Auditor to grant or deny an appeal shall be final.

If material is rejected, the local voters' pamphlet will be printed with the rejected material omitted and the appropriate space left blank.

Public Disclosure Commission

Washington State Public Disclosure Commission

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) provides public access to information about the financing of political campaigns, lobbyist expenditures, and the financial affairs of public officials and candidates. The commission ensures compliance and enforcement of Washington's disclosure and campaign finance laws.

Note: The information contained in this section is for informational purposes only. Candidates are advised to verify that they are following all state, county, and local laws. Candidates must contact the PDC directly with any questions or concerns.

Forms, Instruction Manuals and Brochures Available Online

Visit the PDC website pdc.wa.gov for public disclosure information and forms. Call PDC at (360) 753-1111 or 1-877-601-2828. Paper forms and instruction manuals are not available at the Chelan County Elections Office.

Candidates Who Lack Funds
to Pay the Filing Fee
RCW 29A.24.091, 101,
111, 29A.84.261

Candidates or candidate committees lacking sufficient income or assets to pay the filing fee may submit a filing fee petition. The petition must be presented with the Declaration of Candidacy. The form is available on the Chelan County Elections website or at the Chelan County Elections Office. It must contain one valid (registered voter signature for each dollar of the filing fee. For example, if the filing fee for the office you are seeking is $200.00, the petition must contain 200 valid signatures of registered voters who reside in the district/jurisdiction of the office you are seeking. You should gather extra signatures to allow for invalid signers. No signatures may be submitted after Friday, May 20, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. Candidates must submit all signatures upon initial submission and may not supplement the signatures later. Petitions cannot be combined with money for the filing fee.

Write-in Candidates RCW 29A.24.311, 320, 29A.60.021

Any person who desires to be a write-in candidate must file a declaration of candidacy not later than 8:00 p.m. on the day of the primary or election. A write-in declaration of candidacy is timely if filed by this deadline.

Write-in candidates that file more than 18 days before an election do not pay a filing fee.

Write-in votes will only be tallied when they impact the outcome of the election.

Votes cast for write-in candidates who have filed declarations need only specify the name of the candidate in the appropriate location on the ballot and fill in the oval to be counted.

No person may file a write-in declaration:

- For the General Election, if the candidate lost the Primary Election, either as a candidate or a write-in candidate.
- A valid write-in declaration has already been filed for another office.
- The candidate already appears on the ballot for another office.

No write-in candidate filing under RCW 29A.24.311 will be included in any voters' pamphlet unless that candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the General Election ballot.

Voids in Candidacy RCW 29A.24.181

A void in candidacy occurs if, after the regular filing week but prior to the day of the primary:

- No candidate has filed for office.
- All candidates who filed have withdrawn, or
- All candidates who have filed died or have been disqualified.

There is no void in candidacy if there is at least one viable candidate.

If a void in candidacy exists, a special three-day filing period will be opened. Notice of the special three day filing period will be given by notifying the media.

If a void in candidacy is filled by special filing period, no primary will be held. All candidates who file during the special filing period appear on the General Election ballot.

When an incumbent resigns, dies, or is disqualified mid-term, and candidate filings have not been held for the office, one of the following occurs:

- If the Elections Office is notified of a vacancy before regular candidate filing, the office will be included in regular filing.
- If the vacancy in office occurs on or after regular candidate filing has begun, no election is held for that office. The jurisdiction will fill the vacant position with an appointment until the next election for that office.

Vacancy in Office RCW 29A.24.171

If no candidate files during the regular filing period and subsequent special filing period, an election for that office will not be held until the next applicable election for the office.

No one file non-partisan office (Lapsed Elections) RCW 29A.24.191, 201

If, after the special three-day filing period has passed and no candidate has filed for any city, town, or district position, the incumbent continues to serve until a successor is elected at the next election when such positions are voted upon.

Primary Election Guidelines

Partisan Offices RCW 29A.52, 29A.36, WAC 434-230-015 and 045

A partisan office is an office for which a candidate may choose to indicate a political party preference on his or her Declaration of Candidacy. Federal, statewide, legislative and some county positions are partisan offices.

A Primary Election will be held for each partisan office open for election, regardless of the number of candidates filing.

Candidates for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate's preference does not indicate endorsement by the party. No changes to party preference will be accepted after the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy.

It is the voter's option to vote for partisan candidates of their choice and/or vote for any or all nonpartisan races and issues.

On the Primary Election ballot, candidates shall be listed in the order determined by lot drawing.

The names of candidates for City of Wenatchee will appear only on ballots within their voting district.

The two candidates who receive the greatest number of votes cast will advance to the General Election ballot regardless of party preferences. The name of the top vote getter will appear first on the ballot.

Precinct Committee Officer (PCO) (Even years only)

Anyone who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for Precinct Committee Officer. A candidate must file an online Declaration of Candidacy form. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself/herself to be a member of a political party at the time of filing.

Precinct Committee Officers will be elected at the Primary Election.

Only contested PCO races will appear on the ballot, and write-in candidates are not allowed. If only one person files for office, he or she is deemed elected. If no one files for office, the position is filled by the county chair of the county central committee of the appropriate political party.

No local voters' pamphlet information required. (This office is not included in the local voters' pamphlet.)

Term of Office and Vacancies

The term of office is two years. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the chairperson of the County Central Committee fills the vacancy by appointment.

Duties of a Precinct Committee Officer

Each officer is a member of the County Central Committee. The committee has the authority to nominate persons to fill vacancies for a state, legislative or county office. Also, they may elect members to the State Central Committee. They participate in party activities and represent the party.

Nonpartisan Offices
RCW 29A.52.220,
35.61.050, 36.69.090

A nonpartisan office is an office for which candidates do not indicate a party preference. All judicial and most special purpose offices are nonpartisan offices. No party preference appears on the ballot for these races.

A Primary Election will be held if three or more candidates file in any nonpartisan office, of a city, town, school, special purpose district or district court office. The two candidates with the most votes continue to the General Election. The name of the top votegetter will appear first on the ballot.

A Primary Election will not be held for park and recreation district positions. (Excludes metropolitan park districts). All candidates will advance directly to the General Election ballot in lot draw order.

Candidates for metropolitan park district positions will appear on the Primary Election ballot if three or more candidates file for the position. The two candidates who receive the most votes will advance to the General Election ballot with the top vote getter appearing first on the ballot.

Judicial Offices State
Constitution Art IV
Sec 29

Judicial candidates will only appear on the Primary Election ballot when three or more candidates file for the office. The candidates’ names will appear in lot draw order.

See the chart below for more judicial office ballot information.

General Election Guidelines

Partisan Offices

On General Election ballots, the name of the top vote getter in the Primary Election shall be listed first, followed by the name of the next highest vote getter.

Nonpartisan/Judicial Offices RCW 29A.36.170

On General Election ballots, the name of the candidate who receives the greatest number of votes for the position in the Primary Election shall be listed first, followed by the name of the candidate who receives the next greatest number of votes. If a Primary Election was not required for a nonpartisan office, the candidates' names will appear in lot draw order.

Political Signs

Chelan County Sign Regulations

Chelan County Code 11.92 SIGNS 11.92.030 Exempt Signs

(11) Political campaign or public issue ballot signs are permitted on any privately owned lot or parcel, excluding right-of-way. Signs are to be removed by the candidate or sponsoring party within fifteen days of the election. For the successful candidate of a primary election, the sign may remain until fifteen days after the final election. For residential and designated resource land districts, signs shall not exceed six square feet in area. For all other districts, signs shall not exceed thirty-two square feet;

Visit <https://www.codepublishing.com/WA/ChelanCounty/> for detailed sign regulations.

State Sign Regulations

- Call (509) 667-6415.

To report potential sign violations in a city or town

- Contact the local jurisdiction regarding regulations and requirements.

Observing the Election Process

Public Access at the Election Center

Citizens may view ballot processing anytime during the workday at the Chelan County Elections Office, located at 350 Orondo Ave, Suite 306, Wenatchee. A public viewing area is provided. Visitors may be required to sign an oath of non-divulgence when observing ballot processing at the Elections Office.

Acts Prohibited in the Vicinity of a Voting Center or Ballot Deposit Site WAC 434-250-100, RCW 29A.84.510, 540

During the voting period, no person may, within a voting center or ballot deposit site:

- Suggest, persuade or attempt to suggest or persuade any voter to vote for or against any candidate or ballot measure;
- Circulate cards or handbills of any kind;
- Solicit signatures to any kind of petition;
- Engage in any practice which interferes with the freedom of voters to exercise their franchise or disrupts administration of the voting center.

No person may:

- Interfere with a voter attempting to vote at a voting center or ballot drop box.
- Without lawful authority, remove any ballot from a voting center or ballot deposit site.
- Within 25 feet of a ballot drop box not located within a voting center, no person may electioneer, circulate campaign material, solicit petition signatures or interfere or impede the voting process.

Election Results

Election results are available at approximately 8:15 p.m. on election night at the Chelan County Elections Office, 350 Orondo Ave, Suite 306, Wenatchee.

Election results are available online at elections.chelancountywa.gov

After Election Day

Elections Office staff will continue to verify, open, count, and update results until certification.

Recounts

Mandatory/Automatic Recounts RCW 29A.64

An automatic recount applies to candidates and statewide measures and will occur if less than 2,000 votes and also less than 1/2 of 1% of the votes cast for that race separate candidates or issues. The recount is applicable only to candidates apparently nominated or elected and the closest defeated opponent. The automatic recount will tally only votes for the position or measure in question and will be conducted without charge to any candidate.

For statewide elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 1,000 votes and also less than 1/4 of 1% of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually.

For all other elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 150 votes and also less than 1/4 of 1% of total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually. An alternative counting method may be used if both candidates agree in writing and the procedure is suited to the ballot system that was used for casting the votes for the office.

If a mandatory recount is required for a candidate in a jurisdiction, the costs of the recount are billed as a direct cost to the jurisdiction.

Local Measure, Question, or Issue

Automatic recounts do not apply to non-statewide ballot measures, such as levy, bond and other questions or issues.

Requested Recounts

All requested recounts must be submitted no later than two business days after the certification of the election. A deposit equal to $.15 (machine recount) or $.25 (manual recount) per ballot by certified check or cash is required. Final cost of the recount will be determined by the canvassing board and may be less or more than the deposit.

Resources for Newly Elected Officials

I won the election and have been certified the winner. What do I need to do next? RCW 29A.04.133

Oath or Affirmation of Office

After the election results have been certified, every person elected to an office in the State of Washington, including jurisdictions within counties, cities, and towns, is required by the Washington constitution and/or statutes to take an oath or affirmation of office prior to serving. The oath or affirmation of office must comply with the appropriate statute or, if none is specified for that office, in accordance with the oath or affirmation set forth in RCW 29A.04.133. Depending on the office and tradition, the oath or affirmation of office may be taken or attested either verbally or in writing.

How should the oath or affirmation of office be administered to a candidate?

RCW 29A.04.133 requires that the oath or affirmation of office be administered and certified by any officer or notary public authorized to administer oaths, without charge. Six positions are specifically qualified by statute to administer oaths:

Judges and Notary Publics	RCW 5.28.010
Clerk of the Courts	RCW 2.32.050
County Commissioners	RCW 36.32.120
County Auditors or Deputies	RCW 36.22.030
Town Clerks	RCW 35.27.220
School Officials	RCW 28A.343.360

Where to obtain a blank oath or affirmation of office

- Chelan County Elections (web and office).
- Cities, Towns, School Districts and Special Purpose Districts Clerks.
- Chelan County Council (for County Offices)

Note: this oath is unique to County positions.

Filing your oath or affirmation of office

Once the oath or affirmation of office has been taken for a local or county office, the original must be filed with the Elections Office. Elected officials may wish to complete a second original oath for retention or display purposes.

Oaths of office for supreme court justice, court of appeals, and superior court judge are filed with the Secretary of State.

Bond

A qualified candidate may also be required to post a bond. If so, it is not the responsibility of the County Auditor to verify that such bond has been posted.

To learn more about public office

Newly elected officials may wish to contact their local city or town clerk, school superintendent as well as fellow council members and commissioners to learn more about their jurisdiction and the duties required. You've decided to run for office...

Now get to know the PDC

First: Introduce yourself.

Several actions make you a candidate in the eyes of the law and prompt the requirement for filing reports with the Public Disclosure Commission. For candidates who did not previously announce their candidacy, raise funds or spend money on their campaigns, the declaration of candidacy is the triggering event.

Within two weeks of filing that declaration, most candidates must register their campaigns (C-1 report) and disclose personal financial affairs (F-1 report). (Exceptions apply in cases where candidates are running for office in small jurisdictions and don't plan to spend more than $5,000.) All reports must be filed electronically.

Second: Consider your (reporting) options.

Candidates who are required to register their campaigns can choose mini or full reporting. Choose wisely – candidates who initially opt for mini reporting but then switch to full reporting face deadlines for doing so and must retroactively document their contributions and expenditures.

Mini reporting is available to candidates who plan to raise (from others and their own funds) and spend no more than $5,000 and who will receive no more than $500 from any one contributor other than themselves. Those candidates do not have to file contribution and expenditure reports, but they must keep records of that activity and allow public inspection of campaign books just prior to an election.

Candidates who choose full reporting must abide by state and local contribution limits, but have no cap on how much they may raise and spend.

Three: Know your limits.

Candidates using mini reporting may not raise more than $5,000 (including their own funds) and cannot accept more than $500 from a single donor. Most other candidates face limits on contributions that vary by office sought and type of donor. If a candidate is on the ballot twice (for example, in the primary and general), the limits apply per election. Additional limits apply in the 21 days before the general election.

Four: Meet your deadlines.

Candidates who choose full reporting must file reports showing donations, in-kind contributions, expenditures and debt. They face deadlines for submitting those reports, and the reporting windows shrink as the campaign season progresses.
