

SNOW REMOVAL RESOURCES

Chelan County does not provide snowplowing services on private property. Chelan County Public Works maintains county roadways.

The County is providing this list as a public service due to the extreme amount of snow received in North Central Washington last week. The County makes no claims, promises or guarantees about the service or quality provided by businesses on this list and does not recommend any specific business on the list. Any business that wishes to be added to the list can send contact information, including name, email address and phone number, to Chelan County Emergency Management at Sheriff.EM@co.chelan.wa.us.

Chelan County will not pay for the removal of snow from private property. Chelan County is not liable for decisions made by the public on private property and is not liable for any property damage or personal injury that may occur as a result of any work, conduct or behavior engaged in by any business or person on the list.
