2018 Opportunities for Public Participation

Chelan County

Citizens in the Wenatchee Valley were provided the following opportunities to participate in the decision making process involving the development, implementation and updates of the Wenatchee Valley Stormwater Management Program in 2018:

- The local jurisdictions provide email updates about stormwater events and issues to the Wenatchee Valley Stormwater Steering Committee. The committee includes citizens, elected officials, jurisdiction staff, business owners, engineers, environmental group representatives, and other interested parties. In 2018, members of the committee participated in Municipal Stormwater School presented on March 26 and November 19, 2018 by ECOSS.
- The Wenatchee Valley Stormwater Steering Committee meeting was held October 24, 2018. The meeting allowed various stakeholders the opportunity to voice comments and concerns about the stormwater program. This meeting also allows the stakeholders to make suggestions for stormwater focus.
- A subcommittee of the Wenatchee Valley Stormwater Steering Committee was formed in 2017 to review the draft Stormwater Management Manual for Eastern Washington. In 2018, the subcommittee was e-mailed and contacted regarding dates, comment periods, and updates for the Stormwater Management Manual for Eastern Washington.
