Sheriff Brian Burnett reports as of Tuesday, August 18, and due to the continuing efforts of fighting the Reach/Chelan Complex of fires, days off have been canceled for all Chelan County Sheriff's deputies. Assistance from the Washington State Patrol of eight (8) Troopers every day of the continuing effort, along with support and assistance from the Department of Fish and Wildlife and the Wenatchee Police Department, will be utilized to allow roving patrols to protect property tragically damaged and lost in the wildfires from further loss or damage.

Sheriff Burnett has been shocked and saddened by the devastating losses suffered by the residents of Chelan County, and would like all residents to know the thoughts and prayers of he and his entire staff is with the fire victims and firefighters.
