Multi Agency Response and Investigation Continues

Chelan County Sheriff's Office to Active Emergency Operations Center (EOC) as a Unified Command Post

CCSO and our law enforcement partners are continuing search operations in an effort to locate Mr. Decker. Our ground search teams continue their relentless effort within the Okanogan Wenatchee National Forest area, while other teams follow up on potential credible information and tips received regarding the Mr. Decker's location.

We are grateful for the outpouring of support of offers for assistance from our fellow law enforcement agencies across the state and this nation. Due to the high volume of entities involved, along with the exhaustive resources and efforts, on this case, we will be activating our local EOC to act as a unified command center. Here representatives from all involved agencies will gather to continue the investigation and search operations.

At this time, there is no scheduled time or location for a press conference. When details regarding if and/ or when a press conference will be held, that information will be given out as soon as possible.

If anyone has any information regarding Mr. Decker's location, please contact CCSO or submit your information here: <https://www.co.chelan.wa.us/sheriff/forms/submit-a-tip>.
